

Red and The Adventure in Wonderland

By Ian Uren

Chapter 1: The Dare

Once upon a time there was a place that you couldn't walk to or drive to. You needed a special rabbit to get you there and that place's name is wonderland. You see wonderland was this beautiful place full of weird wonky things beautiful creature and we all had one queen that was the Queen of hearts who ruled all over the place everything was ruled by her she used to be the kindness queen ever but that all changed one day when she became evil and wonderland was not as wonderful as it was. her little cards will go around making sure we obeyed and followed her strict rules her wickedness left us all in fear spreading her pain to us all and if we break the rules oh the punishment was horrible you'll be sent to the prison forever, or she will pluck thorns in your eyes, but her favorite was the worst one off with their head. And our fortune teller's last words before his head was decapitated into the queens lake was this" one day this person will fall into wonderland he will save us all and heal our queens heart' ' with those words everyone had hoped that one day our hero will come and save us all. Of Course he was stubborn and rebellious. He was just so hard to deal with but he did have a change in his heart like the queen and saved us all. so let me tell you Red's story let me tell you about "Red and the adventure in wonderland.

Red wakes up to realize it's summer. I was so excited I ran past my sleeping mom and got dressed and met up with his friends at the park."Hey Red." All my friends say."Let's go, we need to get the rocket before they take it" . We go to the store where I stand in front of the rocket. And tuck it in my sweater. And we leave. We go to our bully house and set it off in his room. Well let's say that his room is very well very red. We spread chaos around the town and then we saw this blocked off area where this white rabbit enters and goes down his little hole."It seems like they don't want anyone going in there" my friend said. "Well then let's go in" my other friend says."sure why not" i say. We crossed and the sun was already beginning to go down. The vibe there was creepy. Until my friend says "I dare you to go down the hole". I say "ok". He began yelling "I was joking, I was joking". I said "nope no and nono im going to do your dare". My other friend said' why would you do that when you know he is stubborn max". I say" it's fine Jason, it's just a tiny hole." I walked closer to the rabbit hole, faced my friends and said" who is going to count?" Jason says" Red you don't have to do this just come back." Max said" me meeeeeeeeeee ill count choose me!!!!". "Ok" I say. 3 2 1. I fall backwards with my eyes closed. My friends ran straight to the hole and I disappeared into a black mist. I open my eyes and I see I'm still falling. I can describe the really weird hole. There was a checkered road coming from the bottom and these giant cards, tables, and hearts falling. I kept falling into them. I was so scared I yelled for help. No one heard me of course. Then this door with a face opened and swallowed me whole. Falling into this weird room with mirrors, and cards. I fall into a river of water with this portal sucking me in. I fell into this world and landed pretty hard that I passed out. Things went black. And the last thing i heard was "could this be the hero she spoke about" the white rabbit said.

Chapter 2: I'm not on earth

I wake up with white bandages on my head. I look around and realize I'm in a white castle then this queen enters the room. The white queen says, "your awake my name is Elezbeth but you can call me the white queen". That's when I ran out of the bed and looked outside. "Where am I?" I yelled. The white rabbit enters the room and says "welcome to wonderland". I was shocked and scared. "Don't be scared, you should be scared of the queen of hearts. She is so evil and sadly rules over everything and everyone here, even me and you." The white rabbit shouts "not for long he is here to save us all but he needs to train." Then this mouse enters and this talking mouse says "yes of course but we're gonna help." Then the white queen said, "Yes, I know we need to help." "NO i'm not a hero i'm just a kid i say.

The white rabbit says” yes you might just be one but you're the chosen one now come we need to get you a dragon. We all yelled” A what!

Chapter 3: dragons aren't that bad

We went to a cave with giant dragons and they were super cool. "To tame a dragon you need to fight it and show it who's boss," said the white rabbit. Yea but i don't like fighting i just wanna go home take me home!,"I said."I need time to make another rabbit hole and only the queen has an infinite one so if you get the dragon we can visit," said the rabbit." deal!,"I said. I take my sword and go running. this dragon started breathing fire. This one was nuts. I jumped with the sword trying to cut it but then it spit fire at me. Laying there week compared to this dragon I get up and go running again. I cut the leg but the back needs to be cut. It keeps spitting fire. I was terrified. The rabbit saw this and ran in to get knocked out by its tail. I saw this and got more serious. But the dragon gets crazy and lights his whole cave on fire burning my arm. I lay on the ground screaming and in tears. Crying in fear of the thoughts of dying. Then I saw these dragon eggs at risk of burning. Red is not playing games any more. I got up with blood dripping from my arm because of the burn. I take my sword and run to the eggs. The dragon spits fire exactly on it.I block some of the fire with my sword. I was covered in blood and now my forehead was bleeding. I take my little bag and try to save all of them but the dragon burns two of them and I saved one. This beautiful pink egg. I go falling down the pile of gold and take the white rabbit and drag him out.

But then the dragon covers the exit and tries to kill us. Scared for me and the pink dragon egg that I want for it to have a life. I leave the bag with the white rabbit and grab the sword and jump into the flames. The dragon was spitting out fire and then I stabbed its heart. I fell covered in blood and blood surrounding me trying to catch my breath. I put my bag on and dragged the white rabbit out of the cave before the rocks locked us in. He wakes up in joy and then sees the dragon egg. We can go tomorrow morning, I told the rabbit.

Chapter 4: the royal meeting

I took a bath in the lake to remove my blood and Elbeth had this cool red and black outfit with my whole vibe. I get into it and go to the castle with the white rabbit. With the egg of course he is going to hatch into my very own dragon. I mean there's enough time since I just turned eleven. the queen was in this red rose dress it was really cool. Hello my queen this poor child wants to go home back to earth because he accidentally fell here, said the rabbit. No i didnt i mumbled. Hm m m m m No she said. everyone was shocked. She laughed and said, he can stay here in wonderland and live under these sad rules. You don't need a mommy hahaha. I was mad and before i could say anything the rabbit dragged me back to the castle dont let him go home dumb rabbit she yelled. This lady was evil. I mean evil was not even a good way to describe her. She has no idea what was coming because just like her I am also wicked.

Chapter 5: A revenge game

At night I snuck out of the castle to get some payback because why not. As I was walking this card graved my neck and said off with his head. I knocked them out and threw them into a river. They were drunk anyway. But this revenge game was epic. I ruined her flower garden full of roses. Threw water balloons with red paint at her pictures and the best one was cutting the guards. Don't worry they were cards as well. And the other cards try to catch me but I make it out and back to the castle but things are going to get weird. Like this queen is evil but confusing. But I did not feel guilty, not one bit.

Chapter 6: Am i a villain

The next morning I woke up and we all went to eat until these cards came asking for me. I was so scared but I had to go. We made it back to the queen. And she said "if you're going to live here become something i like". "This soldier failed to protect the kingdom you can choose off with his head my favorite of course. Or thorns in his eyes. The choice is all up to you. Feeling guilty I say" off with his... Hat. "NO" she yelled again. I was Scared, And I felt like my head would be removed if I couldn't do this. "Because you failed to do your job then at noon it will be off with your head and if you try to escape it would be thorns as well understand me!. He understood and left in tears. The queen said we could be good friends. And sent me home in a card car. When i got home i fell in tears feeling like an evil villain. What have I done? At noon I went walking with my friends to the castle cause everyone had to go and also I needed to help host it. Once we got to the gates he went running yelling "i'm going to live!" Terrified knowing what I said I had to do the thorns too. with his head on the wooden chopper. I went to him and told him sorry and that this would be all over soon and you'll be at peace. I plucked the thorns in his eyes. I immediately closed my eyes and his screaming stopped. The tears in my eyes. gave a sign that I didn't want to do it. And I Cut the rope letting the silver knives cut his head into the lake. The queen yelled off with his head! I went to sleep with nightmares. But the queen was not evil for no reason.

Maybe I am the hero?

Chapter 7: the truth is out

I woke up and cards were already at my door. I was scared. I walked down and my friends were tied up. Red we know it was you come out!. I ran upstairs and looked out the window. I got into this cool red outfit and graved the bag with my dragon egg. I jumped out the window hugging my bag tight. Then he hatched.I fell and he was safe.i started breathing hard so i dont pass out. And go running into the woods. It was pretty creepy. I cried because I missed home and I just wanted to go home.This purple cat came and he was pretty chubby.But he was scary even with that smile. But he was funny and calmed me down. He began flying and led me to this tree.i entered and it had a portal. Is this home?He said no, it was a portal to the castle. He said be a hero to save us. When I entered , my dragon got super big. But I ended up in this place and it was raining. This light called me and it was beautiful. I went to it.And it looked like the queen.it showed me and her hugging. And my friends were safe. What is this? It whispered the future.you saved us. But you will discover the truth.the truth you're not for long mother kept from you.What do you mean. He went to these houses.they were green and had these orbs on them. I broke one and this glitter came out and formed a short show. Me with this red and black outfit with this broken heart on the side and it looked like a formal outfit.I was going down a long red carpet inside the castle.and the queen was there happy? I sat down with a smile and a card put a crown on my head.And it ended. So curious, I go to another house and break another orb. It's me on my pink dragon with my name spelled in fire.I hear this whisper “red come here”.i come to the orb and it tells me to jump down the cliff to save my friends.Scared I jump anyway.

Chapter 8: the great fight

I wake up in this new area and my dragon is here. After everything going on I just wanna run loose and that's what I will do. Cheshire was here to watch. I go on my dragon and go wild burning everything I see. Cheshire got scared and cool fire spelt my name just like that prophecy. I gave Cheshire and we fly to the castle I take my sword and raise it in the air. We get to the castle and the cards look like mutants I have Cheshire go invisible and sneak in to tell me were my friends are. Me and Heart fight these mutants Heart spits fire at them. I stab them with the sword. But they merge and transform into this huge mutant that can kill all of us. It blasted us in the sky and I went falling down. Heart was laying there so weak I needed to do something. It tried to blast me and I did not care. I jumped in and yelled off with his head!!!!!! And sliced the head off. I layed there waiting for Cheshire to heal me with the cookie. He comes and feeds it to me. I went running to Heart but it was too late. I yelled and cried. But I needed to go. I followed Cheshire and opened the door the queen was there. We were scared. And she held a sword on their heads. But there was an explosion. I layed there worried not knowing what had happened to anybody. My friends come running telling me to stay awake but I can't help but to close my eyes. I'm back with the light orb. Am I dead?. It whispered the future never lies. You'll be back with them I'm sure of it. There layed my dragon. Heart! I ran to it and hugged it. It pointed to my sword. I grabbed it and.....stabbed myself in the face. This light in my heart glowed so bright. I woke up back with my friends crying. My eyes turned reddish pink. My eyes were glowing like my hair. My hair lifted like there was no gravity. It was time for battle.

Chapter 9: this story ends here

I felt so powerful. they sat there in shock. I flew into the air to see the problem. The queen ran to her mutants demanding them to stop but they didn't obey her because of their power. I flew and they tried to blast me. I put the queen to safety and flew back. I blasted them pretty hard. And they were getting tired. And I was getting bored so I yelled off with your head!!!! I blasted his head and it turned to roses. feeling proud i used my powers to fix wonderland to what it was before. i detransform and i wake up back with the light with tears in my eyes i said i did it. "Yes you did now say good bye to heart" i cry and say goodbye. i wake up on grass and the queen carried a smile and made an announcement for all of wonderland. "i'm sorry for all i have done for your friends abusing my power as queen and i will make it up by changing and we will throw a funeral for every person in this lake and my lake will be called the heartfull lake a clean lake with your friends spirits there even heart. if you didn't now the lake was circling the castle with a bridge to cross so she ment they can visit the lake that circles her castle. everyone cheers and laughs because of the extra sentence i added and cause our queen had a change of heart. The queen shows me the rabbit hole and allows me to leave before I can enter. the light orb comes reveals that she is my mother. we burst in shockness and i tell her i will stay. To help rule over wonderland. they all cheer. we destroy the connection between earth and wonderland. not allowing another human to make another mistake i did again. i go down this cool red long carpet in this formal outfit that my friend alice helped make i sit on the throne. and the card puts a crown on my head. and now i am red hearts. I hug my new discovered mom.

You didn't think this was it, didn't you? I can tell you that red is up for a time traveling fun trip coming up soon.

Chapter 10: just to tell you how life is going

Hey after all these adventures i have been through. Sitting here with my friends looking at wonderland and how beautiful it became. Makes me forget my old home. Me and my mom moved our castle to one of the biggest areas in wonderland. Our castle is way more bigger than before there's a clean lake surrounding us the gates have a hearts on it. There so much stuff i can't even describe how beautiful it is. We all agreed to destroy every single possible connection from wonderland and planet earth so it's literally impossible for earth to connect to us. The rabbit hole cant even reach it. Not one way the milky way can connect to us were safe from that. Me and mad hatter are really close friends he tells me that he is working on the best gift for my twelve birthday with is in 3 months so i'm excited. I've been trying to access those cool powers lately as well. My mom says that me and her have such similar hair color. I dyed two weeks after she was super sad. I dyed it blond and the bottom with a little light blue. And my front hair is the same blue. Im planning on dyeing it dark purple cause why not. The white rabbit finally was able to recharge his powers. but now that the milky way is not an option. I wonder where he is going next. My mom made it a big giant clear rule that states no more people coming to wonderland we're full. She made it really clear and we all agreed. She said it most to the white rabbit. It was funny. I started school and it was a lot of respect. Because well um queen's son here i'm literally the prince of wonderland. They don't want me to cancel there school with was pretty suspicious because they know were good now. I was supposed to start next week but they were planning on killing us so we banished them. While i was helping my mom in the garden this invitation flew in and it said that i was invited to Auradon prep. Me and my mom were so happy she signed yes and it said it will guide us for the announcement to see who gets accepted. It was in 3 days so that just exited our day. My mom revealed that she went to that school when she was younger. 3 days later we got into my mom's car and drove to the school. We drove straight into my mom's personal rabbit hole, which we know is permanently opened for only her and our bloodline. But it was only me and her but I guess for the future when more of our bloodlines come. We made it and my mom ran into Cinderella's arms. They were best friends. She was surprised to see the change in my mom's heart. Cinderella's daughter introduced herself. "hey I'm Chloe Charming". I also introduced myself and our parents really happy. Our new principal did her announcement and me and Chloe made it as official students for Auradon Prep. We were so happy. They gave us a tour of the school and told us we start in September. We came back to Wonderland and fell into our beds. I feel like one of the luckiest kids in the world because everyone loves me, respects me and people tell me when I take over I'm going to make this place even better. I still miss heart she was good and I barely got that time together with her. As I write this in Wonderland I just can't stop thinking about the adventure I went through just for all of this it's amazing and I wouldn't give it up. Not for nothing.

THE END
